

STUDENT DISABILITY SUPPORT SCHEDULE

1: Disability Service Practitioner Roles

1 PURPOSE

To outline the employment titles and business unit(s) that are referred to by the Student Disability Support Policy (the Policy) and Student Disability Support Procedure (the Procedure) in its defining of 'Disability Service Practitioner'.

2 SCHEDULE

A 'Disability Service Practitioner' is constituted by one of the following employment titles. This list is intended to be exhaustive and specific:

- Disability Assessment Advisor
- Occupational Therapist
- Allied Health Advisor
- Provisional Psychologist
- Psychologist
- Senior Psychologist
- Senior Clinical Psychologist
- Disability Support Lead

Subject to any specific exceptions contained in the Policy or the Procedure, a 'Disability Service Practitioner' shall not include any other employment title.

To avoid any doubt, the following are examples of titles which do not constitute a 'Disability Service Practitioner':

- Student Advocacy and Support Advisor
- Administrative Assistant
- Equity and Diversity Officer
- Disability Liaison
- Grievance and Disciplinary Administration Officer
- Health and Welfare Support Advisor
- Lifeguard
- Higher Degree Research Officer
- Accommodation Coordinator
