

Student Code of Conduct

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) The Student Code of Conduct (Code) is published in order to give students notice of general conduct which is prohibited. It is not an exhaustive list of misconduct. For example, University by-laws, rules, policies and other codes of conduct published by the University may specify other behaviour which will be misconduct.

(2) Students are accountable for their misconduct. Any misconduct may be subject to disciplinary action by the University under its Student Discipline Rules.

(3) It is a student's responsibility to be familiar with this Code and other behaviour standards required by the University.

(4) Compliance with this Code is a policy of the University. It is binding on all students.

Section 2 - Code

Guiding Principles

(5) The University by publishing this Code seeks to provide an environment that:

- a. serves the educational mission of the University;
- b. promotes integrity and academic achievement;
- c. is protective of free inquiry; and
- d. is respectful of the rights and welfare of members of the University community and others.

Misconduct

(6) A student must not intentionally or recklessly:

- a. Disruption and harm
  - i. disrupt or hinder any University activities;
  - ii. interfere with the ability of any member of the University community or any associate of the University to engage in or enjoy any University activities or to access, occupy, use or move about University property;
  - iii. disrupt or hinder the exercise of the right to freedom of expression by any member of the University community or any associate of the University;
  - iv. engage in disorderly conduct including by:
    - fighting with any person;
    - disrupting a lawful assembly of persons; or
    - doing anything which disturbs the peace;
  - v. do anything which may bring the University into disrepute including by making or publishing false or misleading statements relating to the University;

b. Dishonesty

i. engage in any dishonest behaviour including by:

- being dishonest in dealings with the University;
- stealing or taking or using without permission any property of any person or possessing property which is stolen or taken without permission;
- using or providing false or misleading documentation or information for the purpose of obtaining a benefit or advantage for any person;
- impersonating another person or relying on the academic record or any other aspect of another person for the purpose of obtaining a benefit or advantage for any person or causing a detriment to any person; or
- improperly influencing any University Representative;

c. Safety

- do anything which may endanger the physical or mental health or safety of any person (including the student);
- possess, store or use on University premises any weapon, explosive materials, fireworks, dangerous chemicals or biological agents or other dangerous thing, without authorisation from the University;

d. Breach of rights

- cause physical harm to any person or bully, stalk or haze (including hazing to which the person being hazed has consented) any person;
- engage in violent or threatening behaviour including by using threatening or abusive language;
- conduct himself or herself in an offensive manner or use offensive language, on or near, or within view or hearing from University premises or whilst engaged in University activities, without a reasonable excuse;
- make allegations of misconduct by another person to the University or of unlawful conduct to the police or any other government body if:
  - the alleged misconduct or unlawful conduct is trivial; or
  - the allegation is made without reasonable grounds; and
  - the allegation is made or pursued to harass or annoy or cause detriment to another person or delay or for another ulterior purpose;
- engage in sexual misconduct including sexual assault, sexual harassment, indecent assault or any other conduct of a sexual nature that is non-consensual or has the purpose or effect of threatening, intimidating or coercing a person;
- vilify another person or class of persons because of the actual or perceived gender (including the characteristics of the actual or perceived gender), gender identity, intersex status, sexual orientation, race, marital or relationship status or religious beliefs or activities, disability or age of that person or class of persons;
- disclose or purport to disclose to any person the sexual orientation, gender identification or intersex status of any person who is gay, lesbian, transgender or intersex, without that person's authorisation unless it is public knowledge because of a public disclosure by or authorised by that person;
- victimise a person by subjecting that person to any detriment because he or she, or a person associated (whether as a relative or otherwise) with him or her, does or proposes to do any of the following:
  - condemn, express disagreement with or take any step to prevent, misconduct by any person;
  - inform the University of the misconduct;
  - participate in an investigation into alleged misconduct or participate in disciplinary proceedings or legal proceedings relating to misconduct by any person; or
  - engage in a University activity;

e. Alcohol and drugs

- i. be drunk on any public part of University premises;
  - ii. consume or distribute alcohol on any public part of University premises except those parts:
    - which are licensed for the sale and consumption of alcohol; or
    - on which the University otherwise authorises the consumption of alcohol;
  - iii. use, possess, grow, manufacture, store or distribute illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia;
  - iv. give another person or cause another person to be given or to consume food or drink which contains an intoxicating substance if the recipient is not aware the food or drink contains the intoxicating substance or that the food or drink contains more of an intoxicating substance than the recipient would reasonably expect it to contain;
- f. Property
- i. damage, destroy, endanger, vandalise, put at risk, pollute or obstruct; or
  - ii. hinder, disrupt or otherwise interfere with the operation or availability of, any University property or any property of any member of the University community or any associate of the University;
  - iii. enter, occupy, use or interfere with any University property or enable any other person to do so, without authorisation from the University;
  - iv. possess, duplicate or use or provide other persons with access codes, keys, access cards, passwords or similar information or devices to any University property, without authorisation from the University;
- g. Co-operation
- i. fail to comply with any agreement between the student and the University;
  - ii. disobey a reasonable direction given within their authority by a University representative;
  - iii. refuse to disclose his or her name or age or show proof of identity or age or his or her student identity card to a University representative if it is reasonable to request it to be given (it will be taken to be a reasonable request if the student is on University premises or engaged in or present at University activities);
  - iv. possess or provide to any University representative false or misleading proof of identity or age or a false student identity card;
  - v. obstruct any University representative in the performance of his or her duties;
- h. Compliance
- i. do anything which is unlawful in New South Wales or, if done outside of New South Wales, would be unlawful if it was done in New South Wales;
  - ii. either:
    - drive a motor vehicle whilst drunk; or
    - occupy the driving seat of a motor vehicle and attempt to put the motor vehicle in motion, whilst drunk;
  - iii. as a driver of a vehicle fail to comply with published speed limits applicable to University premises including those indicated on signs on University premises; or
  - iv. do anything on University premises as a driver of a vehicle or a passenger in or on a vehicle, which would be unlawful if done on a road in New South Wales, (terms used in this provision have the same meaning as in the Road Transport Act 2013);
  - v. breach any University regulation;
  - vi. breach any applicable standards of professional conduct;
- i. Disciplinary process
- i. without reasonable excuse fail to:
    - appear before or otherwise co-operate with a University disciplinary body or person carrying out any disciplinary function of the University, as directed; or

- comply with or complete a disciplinary direction or sanction given or imposed by the University;

j. Investigation

- i. without reasonable excuse fail to co-operate with a person carrying out an investigation on behalf of the University, as directed;

k. General

- i. incite, persuade, conspire with or assist any other person to engage in misconduct;
- ii. attempt or threaten to do anything which is misconduct;
- iii. be party to any cover-up of misconduct or the destruction, concealment, alteration or withholding of any evidence of misconduct or otherwise conceal the identity or whereabouts of any person who is alleged to have engaged in misconduct;
- iv. publish or display material which could be understood by a reasonable person as indicating that somebody intends to engage in misconduct.

(7) Provisions independent

- a. Each of the provisions set out above must be read separately and none of those provisions is limited by reference to or inference from any other of those provisions or any other University regulation.

Group Responsibility

Student Organisations

(8) If:

- a. a student organisation;
- b. the management committee of a student organisation; or
- c. other leaders or spokespersons of a student organisation, approves, encourages or condones (either before or after the misconduct occurs and either tacitly or expressly) any members of the student organisation and others associated with it, engaging in misconduct, then:

- i. that student organisation;
- ii. each member of its management committee; and
- iii. each such leader or spokesperson, will be taken to have also engaged in that misconduct.

(9) A person will not be taken to have engaged in that misconduct if he or she took all reasonable steps he or she is able to take to prevent it.

(10) In deciding whether a person took reasonable steps all the circumstances must be considered including the following:

- a. whether that person knew, or ought reasonably to have known, of the misconduct; and
- b. if that person knew of the misconduct, whether that person:
  - i. promptly notified the University of it;
  - ii. was able to influence whether the misconduct occurred;
  - iii. did or should have done anything to try to dissuade others from carrying out, approving or encouraging the misconduct;

- iv. if they are a member of the management committee, resigned or should have resigned from the management committee because of the misconduct.

Group Behaviour

(11) If a student is a member of a group which engages in misconduct the student will be taken to have engaged in that misconduct unless he or she has taken all reasonable steps to promptly disassociate himself or herself from the group's misconduct upon becoming aware of it.

Unincorporated Associations

(12) The provisions of this Code relating to misconduct apply in relation to an unincorporated association as if the association is a person.

Freedom of Expression

(13) Every member of the University community and associate of the University has a right to freedom of expression. It is not misconduct under this Code for a person to exercise that right. This Code must be interpreted in a manner which is consistent with that right.

(14) Students are free to participate in student societies and associations, provided they comply with the requirements of this Code and any relevant legislation.

Section 3 - Definitions and Interpretations

Definitions

(15) In this Code the following definitions apply.

- a. "academic exercise" means:
  - i. an examination, that is, a time limited assessment task conducted under invigilation including tests, practical assessments and final examinations; and
  - ii. the submission and assessment of a thesis, dissertation, essay, practical work or other coursework and any other exercise (including in the case of graduate students transfer and confirmation of status exercises) which is not undertaken in formal examination conditions but counts towards or constitutes the work for an academic award and includes related research.
- b. "aggravated sexual assault" means a more serious form of sexual assault, with the circumstances of aggravation including where:
  - i. a person intentionally or recklessly inflicts actual bodily harm on the other person during a sexual assault;
  - ii. a person threatens to use a weapon or dangerous instrument;
  - iii. one or more other people were present when a person commits the sexual assault;
  - iv. the complainant was under the age of 16;
  - v. a person who commits the sexual assault was in a position of trust with, or authority over, the complainant;
  - vi. the complainant had a serious physical disability or cognitive impairment;
  - vii. a person who commits the sexual assault also commits a 'break and enter'; or
  - viii. the complainant was deprived of their liberty before or after the sexual assault.
- c. "aggravated sexual assault in company" means a more serious form of sexual assault when a person sexually assaults another person in the presence of another person or persons, and the first person:

- i. intentionally or recklessly inflicts actual bodily harm (being any kind of psychological or physical injury that is more than merely transient or trifling) upon the complainant or someone else who is nearby;
  - ii. threatens to inflict actual bodily harm upon the complainant or someone nearby using a weapon or dangerous instrument; or
  - iii. deprives the complainant of their liberty before or after the sexual assault.
- d. "alcohol" means a beverage which is reasonably believed, to contain more than 1.15% ethanol by volume at 20°celsius and includes, beer, wine, spirits and pre-mixed spirit based drinks.
- e. "assault with intent to commit a sexual act" means a person deliberately or recklessly inflicting actual bodily harm (being any kind of psychological or physical injury that is more than merely transient or trifling) upon another person with the intention of committing a sexual act with that person.

It also includes threatening to inflict actual bodily harm on another person using a weapon or dangerous instrument with the intention committing a sexual act with that person.

- f. "associate of the University" includes:
- i. any person on University premises with authorisation from the University; and
  - ii. any person engaged in any dealing or discourse with the University or a member of the University community.
- g. "bullying" means any unwelcome act directed at a person that:
- i. would cause a reasonable person in the circumstances to be humiliated, intimidated or seriously offended;
  - ii. place a reasonable person in the circumstances in fear of physical or emotional harm to himself or herself or of damage to his or her property; or
  - iii. create a hostile or demeaning environment for a reasonable person in the circumstances;
- and includes bullying either in person or via the internet, email or other electronic means.
- h. "college" means any college of the University, residential premises of the University or residential premises primarily intended to be used as student residences (including Macquarie University Village or any similar premises) whether or not they are owned, operated or managed by the University.
- i. "consent" means when a person freely or voluntarily gives agreement to engage in an act. A person may be unable to give consent when they:
- i. are asleep or unconscious;
  - ii. are intoxicated or affected by drugs (including alcohol);
  - iii. are unable to understand what they are consenting to due to their age or cognitive capacity;
  - iv. are intimidated or, coerced or threatened;
  - v. are unlawfully detained or held against their will;
  - vi. submit due to the person being in a position of authority or trust; or
  - vii. are under the mistaken belief as to the identity of the other person.

A person who does not resist physically is not, by reason of that fact alone, considered to have given consent.

This provision does not limit the grounds on which it may be established that a person does not consent.

- j. "consent to sexual acts" occurs when a person freely, voluntarily and unambiguously agrees to engage in specific sexual acts throughout a sexual encounter. Sexual assault occurs when someone is unable to and / or does not give consent to the sexual act(s). A person may be unable to give consent when they:
- i. are asleep or unconscious;

- ii. are intoxicated or affected by drugs (including alcohol);
- iii. are unable to understand what they are consenting to due to their age, physical disability or cognitive impairment (“vulnerable person”);
- iv. are intimidated or, coerced or threatened;
- v. are unlawfully detained or held against their will;
- vi. submit due to the person being in a position of authority or trust;
- vii. are under a mistaken belief as to the identity of the other person.

A person who does not resist physically is not, by reason of that fact alone, considered to have given consent. Consent may be withdrawn.

People under the age of 16 years and those with a physical disability or cognitive impairment cannot be said to have consented because of their age and vulnerability.

- k. “dishonesty” includes unethical behaviour.
- l. “drug paraphernalia” means any drug equipment, products and materials which are used, intended for use or designed for use in:
  - i. planting, propagating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analysing, repackaging, storing, containing or concealing any illegal drug or plant; or

- n. “hazing” means any act which:
  - i. endangers or is likely to cause mental, emotional or physical harm to the person being hazed;
  - ii. involves the humiliation of the person being hazed; or
  - iii. destroys, damages or endangers property of any person; and
  - iv. relates to the initiation of, admission into, affiliation with or as a condition for continued membership of or affiliation with, a group or organization,
  - v. and includes any assault, physical activity, exposure to the weather, forced consumption of any food, beverage or other substance or subjecting the person to mental stress by extended deprivation of sleep or rest, extended isolation or otherwise.
- o. “illegal drug” means:
  - i. a plant, drug or substance the possession, use or distribution of which is unlawful or, if only available on prescription for which the student does not have a prescription; and
  - ii. a substance the chemical structure of which is substantially similar to the chemical structure of an illegal drug and has a substantially similar effect to the illegal drug.
- p. “indecent assault” occurs if a person assaults another person, and at the time of, or immediately before or after the assault, commits an act of indecency on, or in the presence of the other person.
- q. “improperly influence” means:
  - i. corruptly giving or offering, receiving or soliciting an inducement or reward for doing something; or
  - ii. making a demand for the purpose of influencing the exercise of a duty by any person or otherwise obtaining a benefit or advantage for any person; and
  - iii. making or allowing to be made an express or implied threat of detriment to another person if the demand is not complied with.
