University Contacts

(6) For any questions or concerns related to travel, contact the University's Strategic Procurement Team via travelright@mq.edu.au.

Approvals

Domestic and Trans-Tasman Travel Approvals

(7) Unless the Authorising Officer or Manager/Supervisor expressly withholds approval, pre-travel approval is not required for Domestic and Trans-Tasman travel. Travellers must:

- a. notify their Authorising Officer/Manager/Supervisor of their Travel for Business plans;
- b. ensure that the travel expenditure is within the relevant budget; and
- c. ensure that they are medically fit to travel.

International Travel Approvals

(8) All International Travel, regardless of the source of funding, must be pre-approved by an Authorising Officer. Where the Traveller's Authorising Officer is not their Manager/Supervisor, the Manager's/Supervisor's endorsement in writing must be obtained.

(9) Travel approvals must be via the Pre-Trip Approval tool or in the form specified in Appendix 1 Travel Approval Template (email is acceptable) and be retained for record keeping and audit purposes.

Booking Travel

(10) Travellers/Travel Arrangers must book travel by the using the University's approved Travel Management Company Online Booking Tool or Travel Consultant.

(11) The Travel Management Company will provide guidance and assistance with matters relating to visas and other customs and immigration requirements relating to the business trip at the time of booking.

(12) Traveller Profiles must be created and maintained for all Travellers. The TravelRight webpage provides instructions and further information including specific requirements for students.

Dual-Purpose Travel

(13) Dual-Purpose Travel must be booked via the Travel Management Company.

(14) To be classified a University Business Day, the dominant purpose of that day needs to be working on University business. This includes attendance at official meetings, conferences, seminars, preparation of presentations and working on general business. Checking emails for one or two hours would not generally constitute a Business Day.

(15) The Traveller must pay 50% of the total cost of the airfares to the Travel Management Company at the time of booking, by providing their personal credit card details either via their Travel Profile, the Online Booking Tool, or directly to the Travel Consultant. If accommodation or car hire is booked, the Traveller must provide their personal credit card details.

(16) For guidance on how Dual-Purpose Travel arrangements operate refer to Appendix 2 Dual-Purpose Travel Calculator.

Group Travel

(17) Travel involving a Group of Travellers and/or students must have a minimum ratio of supervisors to Travellers/students of one (1) to eight (8).

(18) Supervisors who are travelling must nominate a back-up supervisor prior to departure and advise the Course Convenor, PhD Supervisor or equivalent within their course or program of the back-up supervisor's details.

(19) Any group not meeting these requirements will be required to seek additional approval from the relevant Executive Dean or a member of the Executive Group.

(20) Groups of Travellers and/or students should include as many First Aiders as practicable. First Aiders must be fully trained in remote first aid.

(21) When travelling to Remote or Rural Locations Groups of Travellers and/or students must meet the minimum First Aider requirements as per the table below.

Table 2: Group Travel - Remote or Rural Location First Aider Requirement
Group size	Minimum Requirements
Up to 10	1 Remote or Rural Location First Aider
11 to 20	1 Remote or Rural Location First Aiders + 1 First Aider

21 to 40	2 Remote or Rural Location First Aiders + 1 First Aider for every 10 people over 20

(22) A pre-departure briefing is required for all travel involving a Group of Travellers and/or students. The briefing must be conducted by an Authorising Officer.

(23) No more than two members of the University's Executive Group or two members of an Executive team from a faculty or office are to travel in the same aircraft or vehicle at the same time, unless there are exceptional circumstances that are assessed and approved in writing by the Vice-Chancellor or their nominee.

Payment for Travel

(24) When booking travel via the University's Travel Management Company, the approved travel costs (airfares, Transaction Fees, and some accommodation) will be charged to the central Business Travel Account and then allocated to the Traveller's cost centre.

(25) The University's Credit Card is the preferred method of payment for travel related expenses when travelling and, where possible, should be used for all relevant expenditure.

(26) Travellers who have a University Credit Card may only apply for a Travel Advance when travelling to a destination where credit cards are not widely accepted.

(27) Travellers who do not have a University Credit Card may:

- a. apply for a Credit Card;
- b. apply in advance for a Travel Advance; or
- c. apply for a Travel Bursary only if the Traveller is a student.

(28) Travel Advances must be acquitted against the expenses actually incurred, with unused money repaid to the University.

(29) Where expenses exceed the Travel Advance, and a Traveller has maintained receipts showing expenses, reimbursement of the excess will be made following approval from the Authorising Officer.

(30) Other reimbursement of expenses following travel may only occur when a University Credit Card is not available, and a Travel Bursary allowance or Travel Advance has not been claimed prior to travel.

(31) Travellers are not permitted to use personal credit cards to purchase airline tickets and reimbursement in such cases will not occur.

(32) For further information refer to Schedule 2 Forms of Payment and their Applicability.

Undertaking Travel - Emergency or Incident Situations

(33) Travellers must ensure that they have the contact details of International SOS, Emergency Services, their Authorising Officer, Course Convenor, PhD Supervisor, or equivalent and that they have provided a communication plan in case of an emergency or incident. Whenever there is a need for an emergency or incident response, the following steps must be followed:

- a. Domestic Travellers must:
 - i. contact Emergency Services (000); and
 - ii. contact applicable Authorising Officer, Course Convenor, PhD Supervisor, or equivalent within their course or program and report the situation.

b. International Travellers must:

- i. contact International SOS immediately for assistance (for all medical and security advice, incidents, or emergencies); and
- ii. contact the applicable Authorising Officer, Course Convenor, PhD Supervisor, or equivalent within their course or program and report the situation.

Returning from Travel - Reconciling Travel Expenditure

(34) Travellers must reconcile and submit their expenses in accordance with the Credit Card Policy.

(35) Travel Advances must be substantiated with original tax invoices and receipts within one (1) month of the date the expenditure has been incurred. For further information refer to Accounts Payable Cash or Travel Advance.

Travel Diary

(36) A Travel Diary must be completed for all International Travel, for Domestic Travel of five (5) consecutive nights or more, and for all Dual-Purpose travel of any duration. The Travel Diary must be completed within five (5) days of each period of travel and retained by the Traveller for record keeping and audit purposes.

(37) For further information refer to Appendix 3 Travel Diary Template.

Insurance

(38) A University Corporate Travel Insurance policy is in place to provide cover for all Travellers travelling on official University business.

(39) All claims under the University's Corporate Travel Insurance must be submitted within thirty (30) days of the date of the occurrence of the incident in accordance with the Insurable Risk Policy and Insurable Risk Guideline.

Leisure Travel

(40) The Travel Management Company provides leisure travel services and access to the University Preferred Supplier discounts to University staff. For further information on how to make a leisure booking, refer to the TravelRight webpage.

Frequent Flyer and Loyalty Programs

(41) Travellers may accumulate and retain frequent flyer and loyalty program points and status credits whilst undertaking Travel for Business, providing the Traveller is personally responsible for any associated membership costs and other tax liabilities.

(42) Supplier selection must not be influenced by the consideration of a frequent flyer or loyalty program if it is detrimental to the University.

Airline Lounge Memberships

(43) Where a Traveller seeks to obtain an airline lounge membership funded by the University, this must be approved by an Authorising Officer. Travellers should forward the approval to travelright@mq.edu.au and request airline lounge membership at the corporate rate where available.

(44) Depending on the University's preferred airline carriers, University staff members may be able to access the corporate airline lounge membership rates for personal use.

Luggage

(45) For Travellers who conduct six (6) or more periods of Travel for Business per year, the University will reimburse the cost of trolleys, suitcases and bags etc. that are purchased and used for the sole purpose of transporting materials, products and equipment, etc. whilst undertaking Travel for Business to the amount of up to $400 (excluding GST) every two (2) years, on presentation of a valid tax invoice and a signed declaration that the luggage is used for Travel for Business purposes.

(46) For further information, refer to Appendix 4 Luggage Expenses Form.
