

Admission of Students under 18 Procedure

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) This Procedure specifies the requirements and actions that enable the admission of international and domestic applicants who are under 18 years of age prior to commencement of an approved preparatory, study abroad, undergraduate, or postgraduate course of study at the University.

Scope

(2) This Procedure applies to:

- a. all commencing international applicants who wish to study in Australia on a student visa, but will not be 18 at the commencement of an English language (ELICOS), preparatory, study abroad, undergraduate, or postgraduate course of study;
- b. domestic students seeking enrolment and/or students enrolled in a unit or course offered by the University who will be or are under 18 at the date of commencement; and
- c. University staff involved in the process.

(3) Additional requirements are imposed regarding international underage students in accordance with the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000.

(4) International students must have welfare arrangements in place to be granted a student visa if they will be under 18 years of age at the commencement of their course. The Australian Department of Home Affairs requires one of the following three (3) welfare options to be in place for the duration of study or until the international student turns 18, whichever happens first.

- a. live with a parent or legal custodian; or
- b. live with a suitable nominated relative; or
- c. live with a University approved homestay provider (see Accommodation).

Section 2 - Policy

(5) Refer to the Admission Policy.
